Utah Studies Course Description: This is a remarkable class in which we study the past, present, and future of Utah's unique landscape and peoples. We use the social studies lenses of history, civics, economics, and geography together as we examine "the RIGHT PLACE" to live!

General Classroom Procedures & Expectations:

- Classroom rules – (See specific teacher expectations below)
- Late work policy – Late work (work not turned in on the due date, unrelated to an absence) will only be accepted until the done date, which is usually two weeks past the original due date.
- Re-do assignments and quiz retakes – Students can redo any assignment or quiz to better master concepts and information. Done dates still apply, so there is a brief window of opportunity.
- Absent work policy – It is the student’s responsibility to check Canvas and make arrangements with the teacher to obtain assignments missed as a result of an absence. Students have one day per absence to submit the work before it is considered late.
- Movie approval – Some teachers will occasionally use documentaries, Hollywood films, news broadcasts, and film clips to enhance our study or illustrate specific concepts. Films that teachers may use include the following:
Jeremiah Johnson (MPAA Rating: PG).....portrays the challenges & dangers of fur trapping
Thoroughly Modern Millie (MPAA Rating: G).....illustrates flapper culture of the Roaring 20s
The Atomic Café (not rated).....archival footage of nuclear culture of the 1950s

PARENT/GUARDIAN NOTE: You will indicate in your survey response your preferences regarding PG-rated films. You may also contact your student’s teacher directly.

- Classroom supplies are listed on the school website by team, and may include items such as writing utensils, a three-ring binder, spiral notebook, colored pencils, and ruler. Students should verify with your teacher the supplies they will need in each class.
- Please refer to the 7th Grade Resource Sheet for other important procedures and expectations
